Central Chapter Meeting – May 15, 2014

1. At 7:45pm, the president called the meeting to order. Roll call of the officers in attendance followed – all officers in attendance. The agenda was approved and the meeting began.
2. C.O.C. made over fifty dollars in the last t-shirt sale, bringing our chapter total to a little over one hundred dollars. The money in our treasury will be spend to go towards the Ohio Carry picnic on May 31st. – reported by our treasurer Mat.
3. The committee chairman was missing from the monthly meeting so no update was given on that status of the farmers markets.
4. Adopt a Highway is currently underway. The area we are adopting is on 270 between exits 41 and 42. This area is between the main street Whitehall and main street Reynoldsburg exits. The sign on the highway will read Ohio Carry – Central Chapter.
5. Our idea of an Eddie the Eagle type event for the children is still in the planning stages. Carolyn and Jonathan are going to be meeting with a local pastor the discuss the event and potentially using their facilities.
6. The Ohio Carry picnic is coming up on May 31st. It will take place in Mount Vernon, Ohio from 1pm-4:30pm. There will be a huge cookout as well as raffles for firearms and gift baskets. Everyone is invited.
7. Zach Troutt helped Central out by ordering Central Ohio Carry bracelets for the chapter to sell. There are various sizes and we are selling them for three dollars per bracelet.
8. A new t-shirt sale will be coming soon. A vote will be held on our Facebook page for color selection.

9. Upper Arlington was suggested by Princess as a new upcoming walk location.
No date was selected as of yet.
10. Ohio Carry will be launching an official membership sometime in June. The cost of the membership is fifteen dollars for two years. Businesses are currently in the process of partnering with Ohio Carry and as a result, members would be able to receive discounts at participating businesses.
11. A vote was held on where to conduct our official meetings for Central. 14 of the 24 in attendance voted to keep our business meetings at Hometown Buffet.
12. Aaron gave the group an update on the expected failure of HB 203 as well as the introduction of SB 338.
13. Next meeting scheduled for June 16th.
14. Meeting adjourned at 8:20pm.
